APR 25 2002

MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Commercial Solicitation

1. Reference: USAREUR Regulation 210-70, Personal Commercial Affairs, 22 August 1991.
2. Purpose: To ensure that referenced regulation pertaining to commercial solicitation is followed within the 80th ASG (NSSG).
3. Applicability:
 - a. All military and civilian personnel and their family members within the 80th ASG (NSSG) including controlled government housing areas.
 - b. Individuals seeking to conduct business or to advertise their firm, product or event on property controlled by the 80th ASG (NSSG) including government controlled housing areas.
4. This policy does not apply to individuals (military, civilian or family members) selling their personal property by advertisements on bulletin boards, Training Times, or other official command publications.
5. No agent will be allowed to solicit within the 80th ASG (NSSG) AOR without first obtaining authorization from the commander or his/her authorized representative. An agent is anyone who solicits or advertises goods. Examples of goods are Tupperware, Avon products, Mary Kay cosmetics, sport cards, et cetera. Home-based businesses that sell commercial items like these examples are not authorized under UR 210-70.
6. Agents must contact the Northern Law Center, 423-4910/5447, to obtain proper information concerning authorization for solicitation of services. Examples of services are haircutting or manicures for which the service providers receive compensation. These home-based businesses are authorized and need my approval.
7. On-post door-to-door solicitation in housing areas or barracks is prohibited. Examples of prohibited solicitation are life insurance, securities, books/encyclopedias, et cetera (see paragraph 8, UR 210-70). Also, the military postal system will not be used to send or receive parcels or any correspondence related to conducting a commercial business (see paragraph 8, UR 210-70).

8. Officials of cities in the vicinity of the 80th ASG (NSSG) must contact 80th ASG (NSSG) officials prior to on post advertisement of city-sponsored events. City representatives should contact the Public Affairs Officer, DSN: 361-5419/5824 or local 068-27-5419/5824. This contact should occur prior to displaying or advertising events endorsed by the cities surrounding the Chievres area.
9. Solicitation on installations is a privilege, not a right. No person may enter the 80th ASG (NSSG) and transact commercial business without command approval. Solicitation without command approval could result in the violator's bar to some or all U.S. Army Europe military installations.
10. Members of the 80th ASG (NSSG) community are asked to assist the command in this matter. Should you become aware of questionable solicitation activity within the 80th ASG (NSSG), contact the Military Police, DSN: 361-5101.
